Guide to balance transfers and refunds

Read this guide if you wish to transfer the balance of your go card to another valid go card or obtain a refund.

Transferring your go card balance or obtaining a refund

You may wish to transfer the balance of your go card to another valid go card or obtain a refund if:

- ✓ your card is lost or stolen (registered card only)
- ✓ your card has expired (concession and child)
- ✓ your eligibility has changed (concession and child)
- ✓ your card is damaged or faulty
- ✓ you don't need your card anymore.

All refunds and balance transfers (other than for registered cards that are lost or stolen) are calculated from the reconciled balance at the date and time of receipt of the go card by TransLink Cardholder Support or selected retailers.

For registered go cards that are lost or stolen, refunds and balance transfers are calculated from the reconciled balance at the date and time that the go card was reported as lost or stolen to TransLink.

Where a go card has been registered and an authorised user has been nominated, both the authorised user and account holder can report a go card as lost or stolen but only the registered account holder can request a refund or balance transfer.

Partial refunds or partial balance transfers of the card balance are not permitted. For example, if a go card has a balance of $40 (plus card deposit) a partial refund of any lesser value, such as $10 is not permitted.

Refunds and balance transfers will not be provided until any pending transactions have cleared.

Where a go card is mailed to TransLink Cardholder Support for processing, the balance and deposit value on the card is at the cardholder's risk. TransLink accepts no responsibility for cards sent by regular mail.

Additional information

Lost or stolen cards

If your go card (registered only) is lost or stolen we recommend calling TransLink immediately on 13 12 30. As soon as you do this your card will be blocked so no one else can use it and your balance remains safe.

When does my card expire?

- · Child cards expire on the child's 15th birthday
- Concession cards expire when your nominated concession eligibility card expires
- Adult and senior go cards are programmed to expire 10 years from the date of issue.

Thirty days before your card expires you will see a warning message on the card reader each time you touch on or touch off.

To check your go card's expiry date visit translink.com.au (registered cards only), call 13 12 30 or visit a selected go card retailer.

To change your expiry date visit selected go card retailers. Child and concession go card holders will need to show their concession entitlement card or proof of age document.

What if my card has already expired?

An expired go card cannot be used for travel. If you wish to continue using your card you have 90 days from expiry to change the expiry date, request a refund or request a balance transfer. If the card is not presented for one of these within the 90 day grace period, the card will be cancelled and any remaining card balance and deposit is transferred to TransLink.

Where remaining funds have been transferred to TransLink, you are still able to request a refund if the card was registered or you can send the go card in with the refund form.

Where a go card has been inactive for a period of five years (dormancy), the 90 day grace period does not apply and any remaining card balance and deposit is transferred to TransLink at dormancy.

Damaged or faulty cards

Your card is durable and comes with a three year warranty for manufacturing defects.

Your card is not covered by warranty if:

- · it has been hole punched
- · it has been in contact with water
- · any other instance of misuse or damage.

If you can't touch on or touch off and you can see that other people can, your card may be faulty or damaged. Call TransLink immediately on 13 12 30.

Balance transfer and refund form

Complete this form if you would like to organise a balance transfer from your existing go card to a new card or to obtain a refund. To transfer your go card balance you must have another valid go card before completing this form.

In this case, you will need to phone us on 13 12 30 to register your go card and report it as lost or stolen. On receipt of this form your go card will be blocked. From that time, no one will be able to use your card and your card cannot be reactivated.
